Home Stay Retreat – We are companions on the journey

Genesis 18:1-5

18 The LORD appeared to Abraham^[a] by the oaks^[b] of Mamre, as he sat at the entrance of his tent in the heat of the day. ² He looked up and saw three men standing near him. When he saw them, he ran from the tent entrance to meet them, and bowed down to the ground. ³ He said, "My lord, if I find favor with you, do not pass by your servant. ⁴ Let a little water be brought, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree. ⁵ Let me bring a little bread, that you may refresh yourselves, and after that you may pass on—since you have come to your servant." So they said, "Do as you have said."

Many people reflect upon this reading along with Rublev's depiction of the Trinity. (below)

Every Pilgrim needs sustenance and shelter on their journey. Our Vineyard provides a place to rejuvenate with the Bread and Water of Life. A place to rest and shelter. We provide Hospitality for family, friends and travellers. Those on a trek, those searching, those seeking. Think of us as a Vineyard with a Wayfarers Inn. Part of our Wayfarers Inn is our Breakkie Club and Pete's Pantry.

We are growing a bountiful harvest to rejoice with and share. Some will stay and work with us. Some will journey on. Everyday we should express our gratitude and give thanks.

We are companions on the journey (Scott Weinzetl)

“We are companions on the journey, breaking bread and sharing life; and in the love we bear is the hope we share, for we believe in the love of our God, we believe in the love of our God.

No longer strangers to each other; no longer strangers in God’s house; we are fed and we are nourished by the strength of those who care, by the strength of those who care.
(refrain)

We have been gifted with each other, and we are called by the Word of the Lord: to act with justice, to love tenderly, and to walk humbly with our God, to walk humbly with our God. (refrain)

We will seek and we shall find; we will knock and the door will be opened; we will ask and it shall be given, for we believe in the love of our God, we believe in the love of our God. (refrain)

We are made for the glory of our God, for service in the name of Jesus; to walk side by side with hope in our hearts, for we believe in the love of our God, we believe in the love of our God.

We are companions on the journey, breaking bread and sharing life; and in the love we bear is the hope we share, for we believe in the love of our God, we believe in the love of our God.”

Psalm 25:4, 10

4. Make me to know your ways, O LORD;
teach me your paths.

10. All the paths of the LORD are steadfast love and faithfulness, for those who keep his covenant and his decrees.

The best news of all...coffee is good for you!

Studies show coffee intake can potentially reduce the risk of heart attack, stroke, heart failure, type 2 diabetes, sclerosis of the liver, cardiovascular disease, gout, depression, Parkinson's disease, uterine and liver disease!
